Underwear!

Specifically, everything worn under a dress required to create a certain silhouette.

- Hoopskirts/paniers/bumpads

- Petticoats

- Corsets

- Modern shapewear

- Project examples

Hoopskirts

So many shapes!

Usually have hooping
(thick steel or plastic wiring)

Strong support, very purposeful shaping

Great for heavy skirts, big ballgowns

1858 Round Cage Crinoline

Petticoats

Original purpose - smoothing out shape. Goes over hoopskirt and other supports. Or create modest shaping.

Petticoat in Action

Petticoats

Modern petticoats - floofy! Support/shaping/floof in one

Make Your own!

Bumrolls/Bumpads

Pads that go on the butt or around the hips. Can be any shape. Worn under petticoats to create volume and shapes without need of hoopskirts.

Doesn't have to be professional, use anything you want. Fake it till you make it.

Corsets!

In the early days (regency and before), they were called stays. Over time they changed in shape constantly.

A corset is different than a bodice. It has boning structured in a way to safely shape the torso, as well as strong layers to help keep shape. A bodice may have boning, but it is only there so keep the fabric smooth.
